Felton Road Bannockburn Riesling 2013 (Central Otago) $36; 9.5%

Everyone knows about Felton Road's pinot noir, but this riesling deserves attention, too. Bright and floral, with a bouquet of bath salts, lemon and tropical fruit characters. There's no aromatic hint of the residual sugar that awaits – 56 grams per litre – until it hits the sugar receptors on the tip of the tongue. The superb balance deletes any over-sweet memory. Grippy, smooth and with a lemon acid line, there's refreshment as well as luxury texture from the high sugar levels. Food match \ Munster cheese
